

Umpires and Local Associations:

Softball Canada's web-based UmpSchool eLearning tool is back for 2011! And for a time-limited offer subscribers can sign up for last year's introductory price of just US$8. Simply sign-up or renew your UmpSchool subscription before April 1st for this great rate! Umpires from across Canada can now take advantage of this effective learning tool as they study the rules for the upcoming season, prepare for 2011 certification examination or get ready for that big tournament this summer.

Softball Canada has developed the UmpSchool learning tool in partnership with RuleBox Software, a company that develops test preparation tools and online training. When you subscribe to Softball Canada UmpSchool, you can select brief study quizzes that cover specific Softball Canada rules, or elect to take complete 50, 65, 75, 90, or 100-question practice examination. You'll receive immediate feedback on your answers, as well as rule references so you can check on the correct ruling.

This effective new training tool is available to Softball Canada umpires for a time-limited subscription fee of only US $8 until April 1st. After April 1st a subscription for the 2011 season will cost $10. Your subscription allows unlimited access for the entire 2011 season!
